

Micro-watersheds are based on topography and hydrology. Colored polygons represent the individual micro-watersheds within the Lakeshore Nature Preserve.

Lake Mendota

Area of Concern:
Runoff from Eagle Heights

Area of Concern:
Ravine at Raymer's Cove

Area of Concern:
Trail Entrance

Wally Bauman Woods

Tent Colony Woods

Frautschi Point

Area of Concern:
Swale through Second Point Woods

Second Point Woods

Caretaker's Woods

Picnic Point

Area of Concern:
Water Level Fluctuation at Picnic Point Marsh

Area of Concern:
Runoff in Bill's Woods

University Bay

Triangle Marsh

Area of Concern:
Willow Creek - Management of Extensive Watershed

Willow Creek

Willow Creek Woods

Area of Concern:
Runoff on Lakeshore Path - eroded footpaths to shoreline, accumulated stormwater on path

Area of Concern:
Drainage into Class of 1918 Marsh

Area of Concern:
Runoff in Big Woods

Howard M. Temin Lakeshore Path

Area of Concern:
Runoff in Muir Woods

